MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Andrew T. Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director

SUBJECT : Appearance on NBC "Tomorrow" Show

We have confirmed Wednesday, September 15 as the date for your appearance on the NBC "Tomorrow" Show.

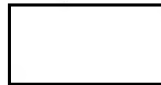

Location: Studio 6A, NBC, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, NYC

Time : 7:00 p.m. for make-up
7:30 p.m. recording begins
8:30 p.m. recording session completed

In my conversation with Mr. Friendly, I have covered our proper concerns about the discussion of policy questions and domestic political issues. I also told Friendly about your lack of enthusiasm for using up time in rehashing old and sensationalized events.

We will be sending Friendly some background and biographical material, as is customary. He also asked for an opportunity to speak to you by telephone for 5-10 minutes on the day before the interview. I told him we would arrange this.

Unless I hear to the contrary, I am planning to accompany you on this occasion.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : Andrew T. Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director
SUBJECT : Appearance on NBC "Tomorrow" Show

One of the standing invitations we have from the networks is from NBC "Tomorrow" Show (producer, Andy Friendly; host, Tom Snyder) which, as you know, comes on at the end of the broadcasting day, Mondays through Thursdays, beginning at 1:00 a.m.

You would be the only guest on the one-hour show, which means you would have 43 minutes of conversation with Mr. Snyder. The advantage of this format is that it gives more freedom to talk about issues of your own choice; although clearly Mr. Snyder will have questions he will want to ask, you are not subjected to the limitations of an interrogation by a panel.

They would be delighted to welcome you at any time after Labor Day weekend. The arrangement is for the show to be taped in the NBC studios in New York City at 7:30 p.m. any Monday through Thursday of your choice for broadcasting later that evening.

Recommendation: accept. If you agree I shall proceed to make the arrangements for a date of your choice.

(Note: In my conversation with Friendly, he indicated that their preference is for a fairly wide-ranging type of conversation. I think, therefore, that you could expect some allusion to China, the United Nations and various other matters relevant to your own past experience, somewhat along the lines, I suspect, of your interview in Cleveland.)
